

Grandparents

- Ajmera, M., Kinkade, S. & Pon, C. (2010). Our Grandparents: A Global Album. Watertown, MA: Charlesbridge.
Global portrayal of grandparent's sharing experiences with grandchildren.
- Altes, M. (2012). My Grandpa. London, England: MacMillan Children's Books.
A portrayal of love and acceptance as grandpa ages.
- Benjamin, F. (2007). My Two Grannies. London: Frances Lincoln Children's Books.
Child's love for a granny from Trinidad and a granny from England teaches turn taking and compromise.
- Bogart, J.E. & Reid, B. (1994). GIFTS. Ontario: Scholastic Canada Ltd.
A travelling grandma's gifts from far and wide.
- Bosak, S.V. & McGaw, L. (1997). Something to Remember Me By. Toronto: The Communication Project.
A true story narrating special bonds across generations. Depicts memory, love, passage of time and aging.
- Bourgeois, P. (2001). Oma's Quilt. Toronto: Kids Can Press.
A girl and her mother move Oma into a retirement home.
- Fry, S. & Moxly, S. (2012). Grandpa's Garden. Cambridge, MA: Barefoot Books.
Billy learns about gardening and patience from his Grandpa.
- Gilman, P. (1992). Something from Nothing. Ontario, Canada: Scholastic Canada Ltd.
Based on a Jewish folktale in which a grandfather takes his grandson's beloved blanket and repeatedly repurposes it as it gets old and worn.
- Jennings, S. (1999). THE BYE-BYE PIE. Markham, Ontario: Fitzhenry & Whiteside.
Going away party plans ensue for a travelling grandma.
- Johnson, A. (1990). When I Am Old With You. New York: Orchard Books.
A boy projects what he will do when he is old with his granddaddy.
- Juster, N. (2005). The Hello, Goodbye Window. Michael Di Capua Books; Hyperion Books for Children.
A special relationship between grandparents and a grandchild.
- Mastnak, R. (2008). Dancing with Grandma. Victoria, Australia: Hardie Grant Egmont.
Imagination and joy shine as a child dances with her grandma.
- McCartney, J. (1994). Grandma's Hospital. Australia: Nelson Australia.
Grandma teaches grandchildren how to repair their toys that needed mending.

- Miller, G. (1993). My Kokum Called Today. Winnipeg, Manitoba: Pemmican Publications Inc.
A native girl shares special experiences with her Kokum (grandmother) when she visits the reserve.
- Mora, P. (1994). PABLO'S TREE. New York: Simon and Schuster Books for Young Readers.
Each year on his birthday, a young Mexican-American boy anticipates seeing the how his grandfather decorates the tree planted when his grandson was born.
- Olsen, S. (2006). Yetsa's Sweater. Winlaw, British Columbia: Sono Nis Press.
Story about a granddaughter who wears her Cowichan sweater as a tribute to the memories and love her grandma knit into it.
- Parr, T. (2006). The Grandma Book. New York: Little Brown and Company.
Lists traits of grandmas.
- Parr, T. (2006). The Grandpa Book. New York: Little Brown and Company.
Lists traits of grandpas.
- Reagan, J. (2014). How to Babysit a Grandma. New York: Alfred A. Knopf.
Fun book that teaches children how to babysit their Grandma.
- Reagan, J. (2012). HOW TO BABYSIT A GRANDPA. New York: Alfred A. Knopf.
Fun book that teaches children how to babysit their Grandpa.
- Schotter, R. (2012). All About Grandmas. New York: Dial Books for Young Readers, Penguin Group.
Celebrates the love and wisdom grandmas have to offer.
- Smith, L. (2011). Grandpa Green. New York: Roaring House Books.
Grandpa Green's great-grandson follows him through the garden to learn about aging, memory, bonds of family history and love.
- Smith, S.L. (2014). The Butterfly House. Millbank, London; Tate Publishing.
Grandmother lives in a house full of butterflies.
- Steinkellner, E. & Roher, M. (2012). MY NEW GRANNY. New York: Sky Pony Press.
A loving story of how a child is able to connect with his granny who has changed as a result of dementia.
- Velasquez, E. (2010). GRANDMA'S GIFT. New York: Walker Books for Young Readers.
Eric Velasquez's artistic journey begins when he visits the Metropolitan Museum of Art with his grandmother, and sees a work of art by the great painter Diego Velazquez.

Vijendren, R. a.k.a. Granny in the Trees. (2011). Green and Gooley. Victoria, BC: First Choice Books.

Granny and her granddaughter discover tree frogs.

Vijendren, R. a.k.a. Granny in the Trees. (2012). Granny's Rude Tree! Victoria, BC: First Choice Books.

Granny's grandsons discover the arbutus tree when it makes rude noises.

Vijendren, R. a.k.a. Granny in the Trees. (2013). Granny's Magic Glasses. Victoria, BC: First Choice Books.

Granny and her granddaughter explore nature in the moonlight.

Vijendren, R. a.k.a. Granny in the Trees. (2014). TIMOTHY TRITANNIC THE UGLIEST LOVED BEAR. Victoria, BC: First Choice Books.

A book about childhood memories when a grandson brings back granny's treasured teddy bear.

Weber, L. (2014). My Granny Loves HOCKEY. Simply Read Books.

Granny remembers how she was only able to play hockey in her dreams when she was little. Her granddaughter helps her fulfill her dreams.